Client: Lumi United Technology Co., Ltd.

Contact Information: Room 801-804, Building 1, Chongwen Park, Nanshan iPark, No. 3370, Liuxian Avenue, Fuguang Community, Taoyuan Residential District, Nanshan District, Shenzhen, China

Identification/
Model No(s): Smart Radiator Thermostat E1
SRTS-A01

Condition at delivery: Test item complete and undamaged.

Sample Receiving date: 2022-05-19, 2022-06-02

Testing Period: 2022-05-19 to 2022-06-14

Place of testing: Chemical laboratory Ningbo

Test Specification:

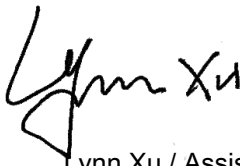

Customer's requirement:

1. Risk Assessment of Articles: Screening of substances of very high concern (SVHC) subject to the candidate list by European Chemical Agency (ECHA) according to Regulation (EC) No. 1907/2006 of REACH and its amendments

Test result:

1. Screening of Substances of Very High Concern (SVHC) subject to the Candidate List by European Chemical Agency (ECHA) according to Regulation (EC) No. 1907/2006 of REACH and its amendments.

Obligation of Importer is necessary if the detected SVHC concentration in article level is >0.1%:
To communicate information down the supply chain according to article. 33 of REACH. OR

1. Notification to ECHA, if the quantities of SVHC in the produced/imported articles are above 1 ton in total per year per company.
2. Provide sufficient information to ensure safe use of the article and, as a minimum, include the name of the substance, to their customers and on request to consumers within 45 days of the receipt of this request.

Test Method: 1) SVOC: organic solvent extraction, determination by GC-MS/ECD
2) VOC: organic solvent extraction, determination by GC-MS
3) VVOC: headspace-GC/MS analysis
4) non-VOC: organic solvent extraction, determination by LC-MS/MS.
5) inorganics: acid digestion, determination by ICP-OES

Remark:

- (*2) The substances are tested and calculated in terms of its respective elements and to the worst-case scenario. The report states the theoretical value of SVHC substances without consideration of the actual occurrence in the article.
- (*3) The substances are tested and calculated in terms of Cr (VI).
- (*4) The substance is tested and calculated in terms of Tributyl tin.
- (*5) The substances are confirmed and tested in terms of borate and the borate may come from the compounds other than SVHCs.
- (*6) The substances are UVCB (substance of unknown or variable composition, complex reaction products or biological materials), which are identified by its main constituents.
- (*7) Individual concentrations to the constituent of UVCB with an amount of < 0.01% were not considered by the calculation of the sum.
- (*8) The test results are based on microscopic and chemical evaluation.
- (*9) The substances are quantified in terms of Michler's ketone and Michler's base by LC-MS, as Michler's ketone or Michler's base was found exceeds 0.01%.
- (*10) The content oligomer is determined by Py-GC/MS.
- (*11) The content of diazene-1,2-dicarboxamide is analyzed in terms of its breakdown product.
- (*12) The substance is tested in terms of pentadecafluorooctanoate.
- (*13) The substance is tested and calculated in terms of Dioctyl tin.
- (*14) The substance is tested and calculated in terms of Monoctyl tin and Dioctyl tin.
- (*15) The substance is tested and calculated in terms of Dibutyl tin
- (*16) The tested material(s) was screened only for selected SVHCs. Selection of tests refers to the material type and application and the possibility of contamination during production & material specific contamination of the product.
- (*17) The other SVHCs which are not mentioned in test result were either not subject to testing according to remark *16 or less than report limit.
- (*18) The theoretical content of SVHC substances is calculated in terms of its respective elements. This material may contains the mentioned SVHCs, it is suggested to check the respective recipe if the theoretical content of the respective substance >0.1% in each article

General Terms and Conditions of Business of TÜV Rheinland in Greater China

1. Scope 1.1 These General Terms and Conditions of Business of TÜV Rheinland in Greater China ("GTBC") is made between the client and one or more member entities of TÜV Rheinland in Greater China as applicable as the case may be (TÜV Rheinland in Greater China hereof refers to Mainland China, Hong Kong and Taiwan). The client hereby understands: (i) a natural person capable to form legally binding contracts under the applicable laws who concludes the contract for the purpose of (ii) the incorporated or unincorporated entity duly organized, validly existing and capable to form legally binding contracts under the applicable law. 1.2 The following terms and conditions apply to agreed services including consultancy services, information, deliveries and similar services as well as ancillary services and other secondary obligations provided within the scope of contract performance. 1.3 Any standard terms and conditions of the client of any nature shall not apply and shall hereby be expressly excluded. No standard contractual terms and conditions of the client shall form part of the contract even if TÜV Rheinland does not explicitly object to them. 1.4 In the context of an ongoing business relationship with the client, this GTBC shall also apply to future contracts which are concluded by TÜV Rheinland referring to them separately in each individual case.	9.1 Any part of the work result ordered which is complete in itself may be presented by TÜV Rheinland for acceptance as an instalment. The client shall be obliged to accept it immediately. 9.2 If acceptance is required or contractually agreed in an individual case, this shall be deemed to have taken place two (2) weeks after completion and handover of the work, unless the client refuses acceptance within this period stating at least one fundamental breach of contract by TÜV Rheinland. 9.3 The client is not entitled to refuse acceptance due to insignificant breach of contract by TÜV Rheinland. 9.4 If acceptance is excluded according to the nature of the work performance of TÜV Rheinland, the completion of the work shall take its place. 9.5 During the follow-up work the client is unable to make use of the time windows provided for within the scope of a certification procedure for auditing/performance by TÜV Rheinland and the certificate is therefore to be withdrawn (e.g. performance of surveillance audits), or if the client transfers techniques and materials, tangible or intangible, that are supplied under the agreed date, TÜV Rheinland is entitled to immediately charge a lump-sum compensation of 10% of the order amount as compensation for expenses. The client reserves the right to prove that the TÜV Rheinland has incurred no damage whatsoever or only a considerably lower damage than the above lump sum. 9.6 Insofar as the client has undertaken in the contract to accept services, TÜV Rheinland shall also be entitled to charge a lump-sum damages in the amount of 10% of the order amount as compensation for expenses if the services is not called within one year after the order has been placed. The client reserves the right to prove that the TÜV Rheinland has incurred no damage whatsoever or only a considerably lower damage than the above mentioned lump sum.
2. Quotations Unless otherwise agreed, all quotations submitted by TÜV Rheinland can be changed by TÜV Rheinland without notice prior to its acceptance and confirmation by the other party.
3. Coming into effect and duration of contracts 3.1 The contract shall come into effect for the agreed terms under the quotation letter of TÜV Rheinland or a separate contractual document being signed by both contracting parties, or under requests by the client being carried out by TÜV Rheinland. If the client instructs TÜV Rheinland without receiving a quotation from TÜV Rheinland (quotation), TÜV Rheinland, in its sole discretion, may accept the order of the client under the following conditions (including notice sent via electronic means) or by performing the requested services. 3.2 The contract term starts upon the coming into effect of the contract in accordance with article 3.1 and shall continue for the term agreed in the contract. 3.3 If the contract provides for an extension of the contract term, the contract term will be extended by the term provided for in the contract unless terminated in writing by either party with a three-month notice prior to the end of the contractual term.	10. Confidentiality 10.1 For the purpose of these terms and conditions, "confidential information" means all know-how, trade secrets, documents, images, drawings, expertise, information, data, test results, reports, samples, project documents, pricing and financial information, customer and supplier information, technical specifications and materials, tangible or intangible, that are supplied, transferred or otherwise disclosed by one Party (the "disclosing party") to the other Party (the "receiving party"), in writing or orally, in printed or electronic format. Confidential information is expressly not the common knowledge collected or compiled or otherwise known by TÜV Rheinland (non-personal and not proprietary to the client) within the scope of the provision of services by TÜV Rheinland. TÜV Rheinland is entitled to store, further develop and pass on the data collected in connection with the provision of services for the purposes of developing new services, improving services and analysing the provision of services. 10.2 The disclosing party shall mark all confidential information disclosed in written form as confidential before passing it onto the receiving party. The same applies if confidential information transmitted by e-mail. If confidential information is disclosed orally, the receiving party shall be appropriately informed in advance and the disclosing party shall confirm in writing the confidentiality nature of the information in its working days of oral disclosure. Where the disclosing party fails to do so within the stipulated period, the receiving party shall not take any confidentiality obligations hereunder towards such information. The client shall avoid using any third party platform and/or email (not including email sent by the client or TÜV Rheinland) to send any confidential information to TÜV Rheinland. Instead, the client shall send any confidential information to company email of TÜV Rheinland employees through its company email. If the client suffers from any data security or information protection risk caused by the adoption of any unauthorized confidential information sharing methods mentioned above, TÜV Rheinland shall be waived for any compensation liabilities. 10.3 All confidential information shall remain the property of the disclosing party and shall be disclosed to the receiving party and which is created during performance of work by TÜV Rheinland: a) may only be used by the receiving party for the purposes of performing the contract, unless expressly otherwise agreed in writing; b) may not be copied, distributed, published or otherwise disclosed by the receiving party, unless this is necessary for fulfilling the purpose of the contract or TÜV Rheinland is required to pass on confidential information to third parties for technical, legal or commercial reasons; judicial court, accreditation bodies or third parties that are involved in the performance of the contract; c) must be treated by the receiving party with the same level of confidentiality as the receiving party uses to protect its own confidential information, but never with a lesser level of confidentiality than that which is reasonably required. 10.4 The receiving party may disclose confidential information received from the disclosing party only to those of its employees who need this information to perform the services required for the contract. The receiving party undertakes to obligate these employees to observe the same level of confidentiality as set forth in this article and to require the receiving party to disclose information for which the receiving party can furnish proof that: 10.5 a) it was generally known at the time of disclosure or has become general knowledge without disclosure of this confidentiality clause to the receiving party; or b) it was disclosed to the receiving party by a third party entitled to disclose this information; or the receiving party already possessed this information prior to disclosure by the disclosing party; c) the receiving party developed it itself, irrespective of disclosure by the disclosing party, shall not be deemed to constitute "confidential information" as defined in this confidentiality clause. 10.6 All confidential information shall remain the property of the disclosing party and which is created hereby agreed to immediately (i) return all confidential information, including all copies, to the disclosing party, and/or (ii) on request by the disclosing party, to destroy all confidential information, including all copies, and/or (iii) to provide written confirmation to the disclosing party that the disclosing party in writing, at any time if so requested by the disclosing party but at the latest and without special request after termination or expiry of the contract. This does not extend to include reports and certificates prepared for the client solely for the purposes of fulfilling the obligations under the contract, which shall remain with the client. However, TÜV Rheinland is entitled to make file copies of such reports, certificates and confidential information that forms the basis for preparing these reports and certificates in order to evidence the correctness and completeness of the information and to comply with laws, regulations and the requirements of working procedures of TÜV Rheinland. 10.7 From the start of the contract and for a period of three years after termination or expiry of the contract, the client shall maintain the confidentiality of confidential information and shall not disclose this information to any third party or use it for itself.
4. Scope of services 4.1 The scope and type of the services to be provided by TÜV Rheinland shall be specified in the contractually agreed service scope of TÜV Rheinland by both parties. If no such separate service scope of TÜV Rheinland exists, then the written confirmation of order by TÜV Rheinland shall be decisive for the services to be provided. The client hereby agrees to accept beyond the scope of the service description (e.g. checking the correctness and functionality of parts, products, processes, installations, organizations not listed in the service description, as well as the intended use and application of such) are not covered. In particular, responsibility is assumed for the design, selection of materials, construction or intended use of an examined part, product, process or plant, unless this is expressly stated in the order. 4.2 The agreed services shall be performed in compliance with the regulations in force at the time the contract is entered into. 4.3 TÜV Rheinland is entitled to determine, in its sole discretion, the method and nature of the assessment, unless otherwise agreed in writing of mandatory provisions require a specific procedure to be followed. 4.4 On execution of the work there shall be no simultaneous assumption of any guarantee of the correctness (proper quality) and working order of either tested or examined parts nor of the installation as a whole and its upstream and/or downstream processes, organisations, use and application in accordance with regulations, nor of the systems on which the installation is based. In particular, TÜV Rheinland shall not be responsible for the construction, selection or selection of materials and assembly of installations examined, nor for their use and application in accordance with regulations, unless these questions are expressly covered by the contract. 4.5 In the case of inspection work, TÜV Rheinland shall not be responsible for the accuracy or checking of the safety programmes or safety regulations on which the inspections are based, unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing. If mandatory legal regulations and standards or official requirements for the agreed service scope change after conclusion of the contract, with a written notice to the client, TÜV Rheinland shall be entitled to additional remuneration for resulting additional expenses. 4.7 The services to be provided by TÜV Rheinland under the contract are agreed exclusively with the client. A contract of third parties with the services of TÜV Rheinland, as well as making available of and justifying confidence in the work results (test reports, test results, expert reports, etc.) is not part of the agreed services. This also applies if the client passes on work results - in full or in extracts - to third parties in accordance with clause 11.4.	15. Retention of test material and documentation 15.1 The test samples submitted by the client to TÜV Rheinland for testing will be scrapped following testing or will be returned to the client at the client's expense. The only exceptions are test samples, which are placed in storage on the basis of statutory regulations or of another agreement with the client. 15.2 Changes apply to the test samples are stored at the premises of TÜV Rheinland. The cost of placing a test sample into storage will be disclosed to the client in the quotation. 15.3 If reference samples or documents are given to the client to be placed in storage at their premises or reference samples or documents must be made available to TÜV Rheinland upon request promptly and free of charge. If the client, in response to such a request, is incapable of making available the reference samples and/or documentation, any ability claims for material and pecuniary damages arising from the respective testing and certification that is brought forward by the client against TÜV Rheinland shall be voided. 15.4 The retention period for the documentation shall be 10 (ten) years after the expiry of the test mark according to the applicable legal requirements for EU/EEA certificates of conformity and GS mark certificates. 15.5 The costs of the handover and dispatch of the test samples for storage on the client's premises are borne by the client. TÜV Rheinland will be liable for the loss of test samples or reference samples from the laboratories or warehouses of TÜV Rheinland only in case of gross negligence.
5. Performance periods/dates 5.1 The contractually agreed periods/dates of performance are based on estimates of the work involved which are prepared in line with the details provided by the client. They shall only be binding if confirmed in writing by both parties. In the event of a change, the client shall give binding periods of performance have been agreed, these periods shall not commence until the client has submitted all required documents to TÜV Rheinland. 5.2 Articles 5.1 to 5.2 also apply, unless expressly agreed by the client, to all extensions of agreed periods/dates of performance not caused by TÜV Rheinland. 5.3 TÜV Rheinland is not responsible for a delay in performance, in particular if the client has not fulfilled his obligations in accordance with clause 5.1 or has not done so in time and, in particular, has not provided TÜV Rheinland with all documents and information required for the performance of the service as specified in the contract. 5.4 If the performance of TÜV Rheinland is delayed due to unforeseeable circumstances such as force majeure, strikes, business interruptions, governmental regulations, transport obstacles, etc., TÜV Rheinland is entitled to postpone performance for a reasonable period of time which corresponds at least to the duration of the hindrance plus any time period which may be required to perform. 5.6 If the client is obliged to comply with legal, officially prescribed and/or by the creditor prescribed deadlines, it is the client's responsibility to agree on performance dates with TÜV Rheinland, which enable the client to comply with the legal and/or officially prescribed deadlines. TÜV Rheinland assumes no responsibility in this respect unless TÜV Rheinland expressly agreed in writing specifically stating that ensuring the deadlines is the contractual obligation of TÜV Rheinland.	16. Termination of the contract 16.1 Notwithstanding clause 3.3 of the GTBC, TÜV Rheinland and the client are entitled to terminate the contract in its entirety or, in the event of a partial contract, each of the individual or combined parts of the contract individually and independently of the continuation of the remaining services with six (6) months' notice to the end of the contractually agreed term. The notice period shall be shortened to six (6) weeks in case of TÜV Rheinland is prevented from performing the services due to a force majeure or other emergency. 16.2 For good cause, TÜV Rheinland may consider giving a written notice to the client to terminate the contract under the conditions set forth in the following: a) the client does not immediately notify TÜV Rheinland of changes in the conditions within the contract which are relevant for certification or signs of such changes; b) the client misses the certificate or certificate mark or is in violation of the contract; c) in the event of several consecutive delays in payment (at least three times); d) a substantial deterioration of the financial circumstances of the client occurs and as a result the payment claims of TÜV Rheinland under the contract are considerably endangered and TÜV Rheinland cannot reasonably be expected to continue the contractual relationship; e) in the event of any serious misrepresentation, be it intentional fraud or grossly negligent behavior of the managers, employees or agents of the client. 16.3 If TÜV Rheinland, for reasons beyond its control, is temporarily or finally not able or entitled to continue or finalize the performance of the service, e.g. in case of force majeure, government interference, sanctions, loss of accreditation or notification, or other circumstances beyond its control, it shall be entitled to terminate the contract. However, TÜV Rheinland shall be entitled to a lump-sum claim for damages against the client if the conditions of a claim for damages exist. In this case, the client shall owe 15% of the remuneration to be paid until the end of the fixed contract term as lump-sum compensation. The client reserves the right to prove that there is no damage or a considerably lower damage. TÜV Rheinland reserves the right to prove a considerably higher damage in individual cases. 16.4 TÜV Rheinland is entitled to terminate the contract with written notice if the client has not been able to make use of the time windows for auditing /service provision provided by TÜV Rheinland within the scope of a certification procedure and the certificate therefore has to be withdrawn (for example during the performance of monitoring audits). Clause 16.3 applies accordingly.
6. The client's obligation to cooperate 6.1 The client shall guarantee that all cooperation required on its part, its agents or third parties will be provided in a timely manner by TÜV Rheinland. 6.2 Design documents, supplies, auxiliary staff, etc. necessary for performance of the services shall be made available free of charge by the client. Moreover, collaborative action of the client must be undertaken in accordance with legal provisions, standards, safety regulations and accident prevention instructions. And the client represents and warrants that: a) It has required statutory qualifications; b) The product, service or management system to be certified complies with applicable laws and regulations; and c) It doesn't have any illegal and dishonest behaviours or is not included in the list of Enterprises with Serious Illegal Dispute Cases of People's Republic of China. 6.3 If the client breaches the aforesaid representations and warranties, TÜV Rheinland is entitled to (i) immediately terminate the contractor/under prior notice and (ii) withdraw the issued testing report/certificates if any. 6.3 The client shall bear any additional cost incurred on account of work having to be redone or being delayed as a result of late, incorrect or incomplete information provided by or lack of proper cooperation from the client. Even without agreement on a premium price is agreed, TÜV Rheinland shall be entitled to charge extra fees for such additional expense.	17. Force Majeure 17.1 "Force Majeure" means the occurrence of an event or circumstance that prevents or impedes a Party from performing one or more of its contractual obligations under the contract, if and to the extent that the Party is unable to prevent or avoid such event or circumstance and (b) that it could not reasonably have been foreseen at the time of the conclusion of the contract; and (c) that the effects of the impediment could not reasonably have been avoided or overcome. 17.2 In the absence of proof to the contrary, the following events affecting a Party shall be presumed to fulfil conditions (a) and (b) under paragraph 1 of this Clause: (i) war (whether declared or not), hostilities, invasion, acts of armed conflict, emergency, military mobilization, civil war, riot, rebellion and revolution, military or usurped power, insurrection, act of terrorism, sabotage or piracy; (ii) currency and trade restriction, embargo, sanction; (iv) act of authority whether lawful or unlawful; (v) compliance with any law or governmental order; appropriation, seizure of works, requisition, nationalization; (vi) plague, epidemic, natural disaster or extreme natural event; (v) explosion, fire, destruction of equipment, prolonged break-down of transport, telecommunication, information system, emergency, emergency, general labor disturbance such as boycott, strike and lock-out, go-slow, occupation of factories and premises. 17.3 The Party successfully invoking this Clause is relieved from its duty to perform its obligations under the contract and from any liability and damages from any other contractual remedy for breach of contract, from the time at which the impediment causes inability to perform, provided that the notice thereof is given without delay. If notice thereof is not given without delay, the relief is effective from the time at which notice thereof reaches the other party. Where the effect of the impediment or event invoked is temporary, the above consequences shall apply only as long as the impediment invokes impedes performance by the affected Party. Where the duration of the impediment invokes the above consequences is permanent, the contracting Parties of which they were reasonably entitled to expect under the contract, either Party has the right to terminate the contract by notification within a reasonable period to the other Party. Unless otherwise agreed, the Parties expressly agree that the contract may be terminated by either Party if the duration of the impediment exceeds 120 days.
7. Prices 7.1 If the scope of performance is not laid down in writing when the order is placed, invoicing shall be based on the actual incurred. If no price is agreed in writing, the client shall be deemed to have accepted the price list of TÜV Rheinland valid at the time of performance. 7.2 Unless otherwise agreed, work shall be invoiced according to the progress of the work. 7.3 If the execution of an order extends over more than one month and the value of the contract or the agreed fixed price exceeds €2,500.00 or equivalent value in local currency, TÜV Rheinland may demand payments on account or in instalments.	18. Hardship 18.1 The Parties are bound to perform their contractual duties even if events have rendered performance more onerous than could reasonably have been anticipated at the time of the conclusion of the contract. 18.2 Notwithstanding paragraph 1 of this Clause, where a Party proves that: a) The continued performance of its contractual duties has become excessively onerous due to an event beyond its reasonable control which could not reasonably have been expected to have taken into account at the time of the conclusion of the contract; and that b) it could not reasonably have avoided or overcome the event or its consequences, the Parties are bound, within a reasonable time of the invocation of this Clause, to negotiate alternative contractual terms which reasonably allow to overcome the consequences of the event. Where Clause 18.2 applies, but where the Parties have been unable to agree alternative contractual terms as provided in that paragraph, the Party invoking this Clause is entitled to terminate the contract, but cannot request adaptation by the judge or arbitrator without the agreement of the other Party.
8. Payment terms 8.1 All invoice amounts shall be due for payment within 30 days of the invoice date without deduction on receipt of the invoice. No discounts and rebates shall be granted. 8.2 Payments shall be made to the order account of TÜV Rheinland as indicated on the invoice, stating the invoice and client numbers. 8.3 In cases of default of payment, TÜV Rheinland shall be entitled to claim default interest at the applicable short term loan interest rate publicly announced by a reputable commercial bank in the country where TÜV Rheinland is located. At the same time, TÜV Rheinland reserves the right to claim further damages. 8.4 Should the client be in default of the invoice despite being granted a reasonable grace period, TÜV Rheinland shall be entitled to cancel the contract, withdraw the certificate, claim damages for non-performance and refuse to continue performance of the contract. 8.5 The provisions set forth in article 8.4 shall also apply in cases involving returned checks, cessation of payment, commencement of insolvency proceedings against the client's assets or cases in which the commencement of insolvency proceedings has been dismissed due to lack of assets. 8.6 Objections to the invoices of TÜV Rheinland shall be submitted in writing within two weeks of receipt of the invoice. 8.7 TÜV Rheinland shall be entitled to demand appropriate advance payments. 8.8 TÜV Rheinland shall be entitled to raise its fees at the beginning of a month if overheads and/or purchase costs have increased. In this case, TÜV Rheinland shall notify the client in writing of the rise in fees. This notification shall be issued one month prior to the date when the fees in fact come into effect (period of notice of changes in fees). If the rise in fees remains under 5% per contractual year, the client shall not have the right to terminate the contract. If the rise in fees exceeds 5% per contractual year, the client shall be entitled to terminate the contract by the end of the period of notice of changes in fees. If the contract is not terminated, the changed fees shall be deemed to have been agreed upon by the time of the expiry of the notice period.	19. Partial invalidity, written form, place of jurisdiction and dispute resolution 19.1 All amendments and supplements must be in writing in order to be effective. This also applies to amendments and supplements to this clause 17.1. 19.2 Should one or several of the provisions under the contract and/or these terms and conditions be or become ineffective, the contracting parties shall replace the invalid provision with a legally valid provision that comes closest to the content of the invalid provision in legal and commercial terms. 19.3 Unless otherwise stipulated in the contract, the governing law of the contract and these terms and conditions shall be chosen following the rules as below: a) If TÜV Rheinland in question is legally registered and existing in the People's Republic of China, the contracting parties hereby agree that the contract and these terms and conditions shall be governed by the laws of the People's Republic of China. b) If TÜV Rheinland in question is legally registered and existing in Taiwan, the contracting parties hereby agree that the contract and these terms and conditions shall be governed by the laws of Taiwan. c) If TÜV Rheinland in question is legally registered and existing in Hong Kong, the contracting parties hereby agree that the contract and these terms and conditions shall be governed by the laws of Hong Kong. 19.4 Any dispute in connection with the contract and these terms and conditions or the execution thereof shall be settled friendly through negotiation. 19.5 Unless otherwise stipulated in the contract, if no settlement or no agreement in respect of the extension of the negotiation period can be reached within two months of the arising of the dispute, the dispute shall be submitted: - in the case of TÜV Rheinland in question being legally registered and existing in the People's Republic of China, to China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission (CIETAC) to be settled through arbitration under the arbitration rules of CIETAC in force where arbitration is submitted. The arbitration shall take place in Beijing, Shanghai, Shenzhen or Chongqing as appropriately chosen by the claiming party. - in the case of TÜV Rheinland in question being legally registered and existing in Taiwan, to Chinese Arbitration Association, Taipei to be arbitrated in accordance with its then current Rules of Arbitration. The arbitration shall take place in Taipei. - in the case of TÜV Rheinland in question being legally registered and existing in Hong Kong, to Hong Kong International Arbitration Centre (HKIAC) to be settled by arbitration under the HKIAC Administered Arbitration Rules in force when the Notice of Arbitration is submitted in accordance with these terms and conditions. The arbitration shall take place in Hong Kong. The decision of the relevant arbitration tribunal shall be final and binding on both parties. The arbitration fee shall be borne by the losing party.
9. Acceptance of works 9.1 Only legally established and undisputed claims may be offset against claims by TÜV Rheinland. 9.2 TÜV Rheinland shall have the right at all times to set off any amount due or payable by the client, including but not limited to set off against any fees paid by the client under any contracts, agreement and/or orders/quotations reached with TÜV Rheinland.	20.
